Water, waste and Hygiene in Sudanese Health care facilities

Dr. May Gamar Elanbya, BDS, MD
Health Care Quality & Infection Control Consultant
Assistant Professor of Dental Public Health
Sudan
Objectives

- Water: availability and Quality
- Hand washing
- Waste sorting and management
Quality of water

- Drinking Water ???????
- Microorganisms & E. coli contamination
Hand Washing Point

- Limited Number of Washing sinks
- Most of sinks with out water
Waste sorting

SORTING OF THE WASTE MATERIALS

YES
17%

NO
83%
Waste management

• Infectious-hazardous waste is mixed with general waste and disposed off in a municipal waste landfill. Only one hospital had been equipped with an incinerator.

• some burn inside hospital
In Autumn ...after rain

- Waiting area in a hospital
Some steps for improvement

• Sudanese Hand Hygiene campaign
Sudanese Hand Hygiene campaign

- All people involved
National infection control manual

EDITORS:

DR. ELKHATIM ELIAS MOHAMED
MBBS, M.COMM.H,D,T,C,D
QUALITY DIRECTOR - FEDERAL MINISTRY OF HEALTH

DR. MAY OSMAN GAMAR ELANBYA
BDS, MD, DIP. OF HOSPITAL HYGINE & INFECTION CONTROL
HEAD OF INFECTION CONTROL DEPARTMENT - QUALITY DIRECTORATE
FEDERAL MINISTRY OF HEALTH

First Edition
2009

Some Improvement BUT still many difficulties
Finally

• Continuous availability of clean water for drinking and washing hands is challenges

• Waste management still a big problem